

This technical drawing shows a front view of a four-door metal safe. The safe is divided into four vertical compartments, each with a door. The upper half of each door features a grid pattern, while the lower half is solid with ventilation slots at the bottom. The safe has a sturdy frame and a locking mechanism on the right side of the second door from the left. The drawing is a black and white line art representation.

A3 (297X420)